KLAN PLANK CONSIDERED TO EMBARASS McADOO

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL GETS UNDER WAY TODAY

Morning Meet Held at the Palace

"God can save men in the stores, in the shops, in their homes, on the streets, in the church, anywhere when they are willing to confess their sin and turn to Him," said Rev. Young at the revival which begun at the Central Presbyterian church last night. His text was the thirty-second verse of the twenty-fourth chapter of Luke. "Was not our heart burning within us, while He spake to us in the way, while He opened to us the scripture?" which were the words of the two disciples in recalling their interview with the risen Christ on the way to Emmaus. In a passionate message Dr. Young presented his sermon on the theme. "The Church of the Flaming Heart."

The Church of the Flaming Heart was described as a church in touch with the living Lord. When a church lost its touch with Jesus it lost its power. Secondly it was a church that accepted the Scripture as interpreted by Christ. Thirdly the Church of the Flaming Heart was one that accepted Christ as offered to us in the Gospels.

This type of a church flames up to God and also spreads out touching the lives of fellow men. The sermon was a forceful appeal for the kind of church described in the apostolic days. Dr. Young said it was worth everything to have a Church with a Flaming Heart.

The revival opened with that stirring old hymn, "Revive Us Again." Miss Anna McLeod and Miss Myra Belle Quimby of Wortham, accompanied the chorus choir with the violin. Mr. Croxton sang "The Old Fashioned Faith." A delegation of people attended the service from Teague. Out of town visitors were heartily welcomed by Rev. Aubrey, pastor of the church, and applause of the congregation.

Arrangements have been made to conduct a nursery each evening for the younger children and babies. Miss Annie Lou Karner will be in charge. A meeting of the children of the town will be held Friday afternoon at 3:30 p .m. at the church for the purpose of organizing a Rainbow Band. All children are welcome. Mr. Croxton and Rev. Aubrey will meet with them.

The morning meeting, 10 a. m. at the Palace Theatre was attended by an enthusiastic group. A heart to heart message was delivered by Dr. Young in which he said that every man, woman and child in Mexia was a sinner and needed a Savior and that every man woman and child in Mexia could be saved if they accepted Jesus Christ. He said Mexia could be turned upside down for God if people would allow their hearts turned inside out and cleansed of sin.

Meetings will be held Friday morning at 10 a. m. at the Palace Theatre and Friday evening at 8 p. m. at the church. But no meeting will be held Saturday. The revival is to continue until June 29. People of all faiths, and all walks and conditions of life are invited to attend.

MAJOR LEAGUE BATTLEGROUND CHANGES TODAY

NEW YORK, June 19.—American League battlegrounds shift Eastward today while the Western invasion in the National is practically at an end.

The Yanks, who lost eight games and won but seven on their Western swing, maintained a precarious lead in the American race with the principal change the advance of the hard hitting Tigers to second place, over the prostrate forms of the Red Sox, who lost an entire series in Detroit.

In the National circuit the Giants fattened up their average at the expense of the Cardinals and are sorry to see the St. Louis team leaving. McGraw's men won their last five games. Brooklyn did well against the invaders, while the Cubs showed flashes of great ball in the East.

Hornsby of the Cards is leading the batters in the older league with an average of .393, while Archreacon Cobb, Jamieson, Ruth and McNulty have passed Heilman in the American League batting race. Archdeacon's average for 34 games is .367, Cobb's for 57 games, 364.

MEXICO PLEASED AT SETTLEMENT WITH BRITISH

MEXICO CITY, June 19.—"I am glad the Cummins affair has been amicably arranged. I am pleased that Great Britain at least meets our request, made so many times, for withdrawal of this man, who for so long has been a stumbling block to understanding."

President Obregon of Mexico, in an interview with the United Press thus dismissed the incident arising over this country's dissatisfaction with the British charge des archives H. Cunrad Cummins.

"We always have acted in good faith and a friendly spirit," Obregon said, "and recent actions, notes and the general attitude of Cummins justified us in praying England, in a conciliatory spirit to place a man here who would be acceptable to us. We hope the field is now open for concord, for we always are anxious to be on amicable terms with England—one of the greatest nations in the world."

Obregon said he only regretted that Britain, after recognizing Russia, could not see fit to do as much for Mexico.

FASCISTI ORGAN IS SUSPENDED FOLLOWING KILLING

ROME, June 19.—Corriere Italino, former organ of the Fascist Government, is suspending publication because of agitation growing out of the kidnaping and probable assassination of the Socialist Deputy Matteoti, it was announced today.

The newspaper has been attacked bitterly ever since Filippo Filippelli, one of its editors, was arrested for alleged participation in the abduction plot.

Meantime the search for Matteoti's body continues without success, although police said they have all the men who took part in the plot under arrest. Milan dispatches said a mysterious international adventurer named Ottone Thierstvald has been arrested there in connection with the kidnaping and told police Matteoti's body could be found in a villa near Fiuggi. Police are working on this new clue.

Thierstvald is a former Communist, who according to police, was hired by the Fascisti to spy on activities of the radicals throughout Italy.

WIFE DRINKS POISON AND DIES AS HUSBAND'S ATTEMPT FAILS TO KNOCK DEATH CUP FROM HAND

WACO, Texas, June 19.—Mrs. John Lackey, 30, formerly of Limestone county, but who moved with her family to Waco about five years ago from Prairie Hill, died Wednesday morning at a Waco sanitarium. Dr. J. H. Maynard who attended her declared that she died of carbolic acid poisoning.

According to neighbors, Mrs. Lackey drank carbolic acid at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. They say that she had attempted to shoot herself with a pistol at 6 o'clock the same morning, and at 6:30 had attempted to drink carbolic acid. In both cases her husband, it is said, stopped her. About 7 o'clock she went out to a nearby drug store, bought a small bottle of carbolic acid, passed through the house into the back yard, and was found a few minutes later by her husband. The latter says that he struck the acid from her hand, but she had already swallowed most of it. Dr. I. A. Langston who was called to the house at once, found Mrs. Lackey unconscious. She was taken to Colgin's sanitarium, where she died about 8 o'clock.

Mr. Lackey, who is employed at the Waco Cotton Oil mill, said that his wife had been despondent for the last few days.

Mrs. Lackey was a member of the Baptist church.

JAP EXCLUSION IS FINAL SAYS U. S.

By A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The American Government has decided that the law excluding Japanese immigrants from the United States beginning July 1, is final and no attempt will be made by the executive branch of the Government to supersede it.

This is the "keynote" of the reply of Secretary of State Hughes to the recent Japanese protest against the exclusion law. It is particularly significant in connection with the belief in some quarters that the two Governments would negotiate a treaty to override the law.

The United States believes that to hold out hope of mitigation the exclusion law would only keep alive dissatisfaction and antagonism between the two countries. It takes the attitude that all the exchanges between the United States and Japan over the immigration controversy have been conducted in a spirit of friendship and understanding. Hughes in his reply to Ambassador Hanihara stated:

"I take pleasure in noting your reference to the friendliness and candor in which your communication has been made and you may be assured of the readiness of this Government to consider in the same spirit the views you have set forth."

Hughes made it plain this Government desires to dispel all suppositions that in enacting the exclusion law the United States has violated the commercial treaty with Japan, the expiring gentlemen's agreement or the principles of international comity.

Hughes reveals that the American Government in a communication to the Japanese Ambassador on Jan. 23, 1911, accepted the proposal for negotiation of the treaty of commerce and navigation of 1911, "with all necessary reserves and without prejudice to the inherent sovereign right of either country to limit and control immigration to its own domains or possessions."

This Government holds that the exclusion law is no violation of the gentlemen's agreement as that pact is an unilateral undertaking entered to voluntarily by Japan which is to continue so long as conditions warranted. With the new immigration law, however, conditions have changed and the agreement is no longer necessary. Releasing Japan from all further obligation under the gentlemen's agreement after July 1, Hughes declared:

Finally, there is no violation of international comity involved in the exclusion law. The Japanese Government, itself, has exercised the sovereign power inherent in all nations to place control on immigration.

RHODE ISLANDERS REFUSE TO LEAVE WHEN POISON GAS USED TO STOP FILIBUSTER IN THE STATE SENATE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 19.—What is said to be poisoned gas was used in an attempt to break up a filibuster in the Rhode Island state senate, which has been in session since Tuesday afternoon. The deadlock is due to democratic assistances that the republicans vote for a constitutional convention before the senate adjourns. The chair refuses to recognize the republicans. Fist fights and small riots climaxed by the introduction of gas into the chamber. The members refused to leave despite the gas.

ROTARIANS HEAR GREAT ADDRESS AT LUNCHEON TODAY

One of the finest addresses yet heard at the Rotary club was presented at noon today by Dr. L. D. Young, pastor of the City Temple at Dallas and who is doing the preaching for the next nine days at the revival being conducted under the auspices of the Central Presbyterian church.

Hardy Eubanks, President of the club, called the meeting to order and introduced the visitors and guests of the club, following which he read a telegram from Albert H. Berry, delegate from Mexia Rotary at the World convention of Rotarians at Toronto, Canada. Mr. Berry stated in his telegram that it was a great thing to rub shoulders with Rotarians from 26 countries, all interested in "Service Above Self," the Rotary motto and battle cry.

John Corley was chairman of the Program Committee and handled the program in fine fashion, introducing Dr. Young who delivered an address on Salesmanship. He declared that salesmanship depended upon a character being ready for the opportunity when it presented itself; the salesman must first sell himself; a 100 per cent character should be put behind 100 per cent goods; a salesman should give his business that attention necessary to prevent failure and to bring success; and that he must look to his own personal habits, be kind and courteous and above all have a passion for his business. He stated that a French scientist had truly said that a drop of blood and an all consuming passion was bigger than the sun.

At the conclusion of his address, the club stood in recognition of the inspirational address so akin to the ideals of Rotary.

Being from Nebraska, it was natural for him to pay a glowing tribute to William Jennings Bryan and he did so in stressing certain points of his fifteen minute address.

Rev. Victor E. Aubrey announced the morning services at the Palace Theatre under the auspices of the revival and invited the public to all services of the campaign.

Dr. Young stated that he was in Mexia three years ago and he was much impressed with the steps of progress made since that time, saying that Mexia was a going concern.

Mr. Corley stated that there had never been any address or songs more acceptable and inspirational than those heard today, thanking those who had assisted in the program. President Eubanks agreed to this statement.

L. A. Parker announced at the club that Harry Cooper, Texas golf champion would play two exhibition games at the country club Friday morning upon his arrival on the 10:30 train and in the afternoon would play the Bell game. Whether Mr. Parker, or Tom Nolan or David Murphy would play against him was not made very clear.

DUAL MORAL CODE IS GRIFFITH FILM THEME

It is doubtful if D. W. Griffith ever labored more diligently in his career on any work than he did in the case of his latest United Artists production "The White Rose," which comes to the National Theatre today, Friday and Saturday.

Here is something so distinctly different, so reverently tender and depending so much upon vastly superior characterization that the famous producer found it necessary to take scenes time after time in order that each might be perfect in its cameo-like delicacy and beauty.

Mr. Griffith's theme in this instance is far different than anything ever seen before on screen or stage. It was necessary that it be told in the most artistic manner and be arranged by a past master in the art.

A youth of high family and circumstance in a section of the South which boasts one of our oldest social orders is preparing for the ministry, thus fulfilling a dying wish of his mother. He is finishing his last year at the seminary and it has been practically accepted by all who know him that he shall marry a girl of equal family importance in his own neighborhood. To learn something of the world and broaden his outlook, he sets out on a walking trip and visits various cities.

Meanwhile there emerges from an orphanage a slip of a girl who must make her way unaided in the world. She obtains employment in an inn frequented by winter vacationists and here this youth of religious mein meets her.

The waif has progressed to the acute flapper stage by this time, having been told she must make herself attractive to get on in the world. She does so, but in a manner that outdistances the others. The student preacher meets her, becomes enamoured, yet all the while thinking she is of a bad sort. Their friendliness ripens into something deeper and the divinity student flees from his charmer.

Then the world moves on in its circle of woe. A flight of time finds the youth ordained and in high opinion as a preacher of exceptional powers. But in this time a baby comes to the waif and she is cast about and shunned by reason of her violation of that terrible single code of morals which has held so long.

Despite his surroundings, and his success in the pulpit, the minister is unable to forget the girl he knew so briefly in his travels. He is about to wed the maiden of his own circle when the wanderer with her child happens into his locality.

The denouement of this delicate story of ennobling love progresses in a most gripping manner and there comes a meeting between the pair in a lowly negro shanty which takes rank with any scene ever shown on the screen or across the footlights of a theatre.

In order to be certain of the proper atmosphere for this story, Mr. Griffith took his company into the Bayou Teche country of western Louisiana, where were filmed the many strikingly beautiful scenes with which this work abounds. Also, the great producer selected a cast to portray the principal characters which seldom has been equalled.

Mae Marsh returns to the screen after a long absence to play the part of the orphan girl and registers the greatest success of her noteworthy career. The minister is essayed by Ivor Novello, the handsome young English actor, who has quickly won the favor of American audiences thru his work in this instance. Other players are Carol Dempster, Neil Hamilton, Proter Strong, Lucille La Verne, Erville Alderson, Jane Thomas, Kate Bruce, Herbert Sutch, Charles Emmet Mack and a large number of carefully chosen supernumeraries.

This Sort Of Fly Is A Benefactor

Their unheralded aid is a species of f. that suddenly appeared and makes its especial duty that of attacking "hoppers." The fly deposits an egg in the joint that connects the "hopper's" head to the body. The "hopper" is stupyfied, and the egg soon hatches a larva which devours the grasshopper.

It is said the flies are present by the millions, and one farmer reported that his land was thickly strewn with grasshoppers which had been attacked by the flies.

Former Mexia Pastor Witnesses Graduation Of His Granddaughter

WAXAHACHIE, June 18.—Himself a graduate of Trinity University the Rev. J. S. Groves, 87 years old, witnessed the graduation this year of his granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Kilbourn, from the same school. Miss Kilbourn was one of forty-two students to graduate from Trinity this year.

It is not often that a member of the first graduating class of a college lives to attend the graduation of his own granddaughter, as has Mr. Groves, who is one of the two graduates of the Trinity the first year of the institution. This week, fifty-three years later, the Rev. and Mrs. Groves who live in a little home facing the college campus, stepped across the campus to witness the graduation of their granddaughter, who received a degree of bachelor of arts.

Mr. Groves is a retired Presbyterian minister, having served churches at Fairfield and Cotton Gin for twenty-three years and the Mexia church for nineteen years. He is now very feeble.

Miss Kilbourn in her senior year was editor of "The Mirage," the university yearbook. During the year the faculty offered a scholarship to the student presenting a thesis setting forth the six best reasons why young people seeking a college education should attend Trinity. Miss Kilbourn won the prize.

The most successful concerns in the world are those who advertise and keep on at it.

WHITE PLAGUE FOUND TO PERIL POULTRY FLOCKS

URBANA, Ill.—Tuberculosis is attacking poultry flocks, experts of the animal pathology and hygiene division of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, have discovered.

The disease has made its way into a majority of the farm flocks in some sections of the State and appears to be spreading.

Avian tuberculosis—the type found in chickens—cannot be cured, its control depending entirely no preventive measures, according to the university experts. Infected flocks should be given the tuberculin test, the reactors destroyed and the premises disinfected, they recommend.

"A tuberculous flock of chickens on a farm endangers other flocks in the community," the statement sent to 800 State veterinarians warns.

"Flying birds, such as English sparrows, may carry the infection, while in some localities the chickens on different farms intermingle and spread the disease."

The final stages of the disease are marked by weakness, paleness of the comb, skin and mucous membranes, loss of flesh, unthriftiness and sometimes swollen joints and lameness. The appetite of the affected chickens remains normal until just before death.

LEGITIMATE AND UNPLUCKED WAR FRUIT

At the National Convention in Madison Square Garden in New York next week, Woodrow Wilson will not be there. But the things that he stood for will be present. Rejected by his countrymen, in the years following immediately after the war, the principles in which he expressed an abiding faith so many times were gradually triumphing and the chances are bright that the nominee of the Democratic convention this year will be a man who favors the ideals expressed in the League of Nations.

Before he left the White House, Woodrow Wilson was an invalid, broken by seven years of continued strain, while comparatively few persons abroad and in striving to build the new order of human relationship upon the ruins of the old and consistent with the doctrines of the "Prince of Peace." The relentless hand of politics beat upon his door but they now refused to knock. Even those of the Republican party even who fought savagely against America's entrance into the League of Nations were received as leaders at the recent Cleveland convention.

This is not a source of wonder. It is but natural. The only offense they ever accused Woodrow Wilson of having been guilty of was that he sought to save a future generation of this country and of the world from the agonies through which this generation has passed; that he had taken seriously the promises that all nations had made that they would unite at the end of the last world war to preserve the peace of the world; and that he relied upon the good faith of his own people. If there was a mistake it was in that he formed a too generous estimate of mankind at that particular time, but the years will surely prove that he was justified even in his confidence. The idealism which made the world war a great spiritual victory may be relied on, through the democrats of this nation ultimately to secure the legitimate and unplucked fruit of war, the reign of universal peace.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

EDITORIAL ON THE EDUCATION BILL.

Friends of the Education Bill, which was not reached in the session of Congress just closed, are disappointed, but not discouraged or disheartened. Rome was not built in a day. Powerful interests are at work to prevent the passage of the bill from passing the Senate, and the governmental activities [illegible] Department of education [illegible] government may be related welfare and health movements in the government, and that economy would be served by combining, for instance, in one department, the present Bureau of Education, the Pension Office, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Howard University and Freedman's Hospital, all now under the Department of the Interior; the Public Health Service, now in the Treasury Department; the Veteran's Bureau, the Federal Board for Vocational Education, the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, and the National Home for Volunteer Disabled Soldiers.

Just what relation there is between education and welfare, which does not exist between education and warfare, or education and forestry, or education and agriculture, or education and lighthouses, does not appear. Education, the most important factor in the making of citizens, is no more related to bodily health than to bodily safety or bodily freedom from fire hazard, or bodily dependence upon food products. To combine medicine with education in the Government would be as unreasonable and as chaotic as to combine horticulture and the Bureau of Mines, or the Bureau of Standards with the Fish Commission.

The proponents of the Education Bill have just begun to fight! The National Education Association, the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction and hundreds of other organizations intend to keep up their efforts to combat the prejudice and the propaganda which are arrayed against the passage of this measure. They are certain to win in the end; it is merely a matter of keeping up courage and holding together against disappointment, and forever against a craven compromise the millions of men and women who want to see this great nation spend as much and do as much towards educating its citizens as it does towards improving its various brands of pigs and cattle, fruit and grain! —Scottish Rite News Bureau.

WEIRD TALE TOLD OF "MOVIE MURDER"

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 18.—A weird tale told by a prisoner sentenced to San Quentin penitentiary has set the police of Los Angeles searching on what may be the trail of a new movie murder, involving beautiful Barbara La Marr as one of the principals, or maybe only the ravings of a publicity seeker.

Thus far the police have a fairly complete story of the reported crime but no corpse or other evidence of its having been committed

Four weeks ago, a certain actor styling himself Count Marioi Escobar, who had found indifferent success in his striving for film fame, disappeared from Hollywood.

Nothing was thought of this until Morris Nodler, prisoner in the county jail and under sentence for highway robbery, claimed to have knowledge that the Count was murdered and to know the spot along the lonely cliffs at San Capistrano where the nobleman's body was hurled over into the sea To make his story good, he declared the count had been murdered in a fight over Barbara La Marr.

Police placed sufficient credence in the man's story to search the windswept beach beneath the cliffs, but found no body.

Nodler named two men, formerly connected with Miss La Marr, as being implicated in the affair.

The story was that on a certain dark night, the prisoner drove an automobile for two men. One was a former convict. The other, a relative of the actress by marriage.

Nodler claimed he drove to the Count's bungalow and that some little time later the men emerged, carrying the limp body of Escobar, which was thrown from the heights along the Torrey Pines grade below San Juan Capistrana on the road to San Diego. He embellished his tale with the howling of wind and the swish of white capped waves on the beach below.

Whenever You Possibly Can!

At present more than 80 per cent of the commodities used in Texas are manufactured out of the State. At the very best this should be only 50 per cent.

Mexia, in 1924, has entered upon an extensive campaign to build an industrial district in this city and community, destined to help the city grow as no other single movement could possibly do within the same period of time and with such permanent beneficial results to all concerned.

Makers of Mexia, loyal friends of this community, home loving citizens who are anxious to join in this worthy movement, all are urged to buy Mexia made products every time they need anything in the verious lines which are now manufactured in the growing industrial district right here at home.

No products are superior to those made in Mexia.

The growth of the city can best be brought about by a big tin bucket brigade. Hundreds are already in this brigade in Mexia and with your help hundreds more can and will be added.

This page calls your attention directly to many Mexia manufactured products. The manufacturers are striving daily to help you by giving you the very best quality, in the goods offered and will appreciate the consideration of all citizens who aspire to see the city reach the same worthy goal, a bigger and better place.

INDIANS WIN OUT AFTER HUMPHREYS' BLOW TIES COUNT

By JINX TUCKER
News-Tribune Sports Editor

For the sixth time in five days a baseball game was decided by a 1-run margin at Katy park. And for the second time in five days the margin of victory went to the Waco Indians, the locals with Speck Ragan in the box defeating the Mexia Gushers by a score of 4 to 3 in a game which was again featured by the brilliant fielding of the Mexia team.

Home Runs Score Four Runs ....

A home run by First Baseman Harding with Jones on second gave the visitors a lead of 3 to 1 in the fourth, and apparent victory, but in the seventh a home run by Chink Humphreys following Shires' double gave the locals a pair of runs, thereby tying the count. The Tribe then proceeded to win the game in the eighth when Manager Fowlkes, who was playing short instead of Geppert, threw wild to first after fielding Strickland's grounder, Old Folks going to second on the play. Lewis cracked a sizzling liner over second for a single, but Leedy, who played a great game in the field, knocked the blow down in sensational style, holding Strickland at third. The former Baylor star, however, scored on Hall's grounder to Jones. The Mexia third baseman whipped the ball to second to force Lewis, but Hall beat the throw to first when Leedy attempted to get a double killing. That run won the ball game for the Indians despite the glittering defensive play of Outfielder Bryan, Third Baseman Jones and Gus Leedy at second.

The Indians scored a run in the very first inning on hits by Kelly, Lewis and Province. Incidentally Lewis had a big day at bat with a double and two singles in four trips to the plate. Butler of Mexia also bingled three times while Jones hit a pair of doubles. Mexia's first run also came in the fourth, all the runs being made in this inning after two were out. Butler singled, but was picked off first by Humphreys, after two narrow escapes and Bryan struck out. Seeley doubled and Jones followed with his first double of the day scoring Seeley, after which came the home run over the left-field wall by Harding.

Williamson Stars for Gushers

Country Williamson, former Baylor star, playing his first game in Waco in a Mexia uniform, worked in flawless fashion behind the plate, also batting against Ragan, a pitcher, who throws just about as many curves as any hurler in the Texas association, the Arkansas product, smacked out two clean blows to left on his first two appearances at the plate. On his third turn at bat Williamson connected on to Lewis and in the ninth sent a line drive to center which looked good for a triple for a moment but which Province turned into an easy out. Steinie Strickland, former Baylor star with Waco, was robbed of two hits by Bryan of the visitors.

JUNE TEENTH FINDS SHORTAGE OF LABOR

Negro help in the city is pretty scarce today. For the past several days many of the negroes of the community, both men and women, have been in the cotton patch and corn fields helping get rid of the weeds and grass. Today being "June Teenth," however, the farms are also evidencing a shortage of labor. Picnics at various points throughout the section attracted them together for their usual holiday and celebration.

The Mexican Government has decided to spend about $3,000,000 on irrigation project to develop several million acres of arid land in Chihuahua, Durango and Coahuila.

THREE WORLD RECORD BREAKERS IN ONE FINISH.

Must Make His Living Without Hands, And Can

When he was 13 years old, Coffey was thrown in front of a binder which severed both arms at the wrists. For two months he was in bed, but that fall he went to school. He has been going ever since.

At the state teachers college, where he is now a student, Coffey stood among the ten students of an attendance of 2000. He was elected editor in chief of the school annual——the highest honor the student body can confer. He won a $100 scholarship, took first in the high hurdles in the meet at S. M. U. and won his college letter. Twice he has been chosen president of his class.

"Worrying about the lose of my hands won't help" he said. "I just forget about it and go ahead."

Local Menagerie Has Alligators

Mrs. George Scoggins has quite a Zoological garden at Scoggins Candy Shop on East Commerce street. In front of the place is a cage for squirrels which attracts considerable attention and while looking at it several other species of animals may be seen. The latest addition is a couple of baby alligators. They were sent in a cigar box recently from an alligator farm in Florida. Mrs. Scoggins was very much surprised when they arrived, not knowing that they were to be sent. They were in the cigar box and four days were required for them to get here by parcels post.

T. E. L. Sunday School Class Enjoys A Social

The T. E. L. Sunday School class of the Baptist church met last Friday in regular monthly social session. The class was entertained by Mesdames M. Bryant and Clyde Mason at the lovely home of Mrs. Bryant on Ross Avenue. The hours from 5 to 7 in the afternoon, at which time the gathering took place, sped swiftly by as every moment was enjoyable and inspirations, fellowship and hospitality being truly genuine.

A program and business session was presided over by the president of the class, Mrs. Bryant, and this also was a delightful part of the afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Jeffers made a most inspirational report of the Baptist Convention at Atlanta which she attended. Miss Lelia Westmoreland gave a splendid reading and other features enlivened the hour. It being announced that Miss Catherene McGrail was to leave soon for her vacation in the West, the class unanimously expressed a wish that she have a most delightful and happy vacation, this being phrased in a motion that was approved by all present.

Delicious refreshments of pink and white ice cream and angel food cake were served. On top of the cream, the letters "T. E. L." were very attractive.

FORMER MEXIA PRINTER NOW IN WASHINGTON

Charles M. Church, until two months ago foreman of the News Publishing Company, is now employed as a printer and linotype operator in the government printing office at Washington, D. C.

He writes that he is enjoying his experience in the Capitol city very much. He expects to spend a weekend soon in New York City, the round trip fare between Washington and New York on such excursions being $5.00. The regular fare is more than $8.00 each way.

In speaking of his own surroundings, he states that none is allowed in the building except at work hours and if you work extra you have to have a pass and sign up to get out of the building. "I have not been in any other department except the linotype department which is located on the 7th floor and I go up in the elevator in the morning at 7:30 and leave in the evening at 4:30. Washington is a pretty place, plenty of parks and shade also boat rides in the river and swimming and fishing. If you don't like that then there are the mountains, fine drives, interesting street car rides and other amusements."

He concludes a recent letter by saying that "I see President Coolidge will be our next President." (Mr. Church is a Republican.)

MANY ATTEND GAME PLAYED IN WACO

Mexia was well represented at the ball game with Waco in the Waco park Wednesday. Among the local fans who saw the heart breaker were Mr. and Mrs. John Sweatt, Rev. Joe Putman, J. Sandford Smith, Walter Womack, Gray Forrest, Roy Bass, John Sanders, Jess McLendon, W. C. Wilson, J. C. McDuffoh, Bush Allison, Mr. and Mrs. J. Desenberg, Mrs. Cerne Desenberg, J. W. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Akin, Frank Irwin and Clarence Tice.

MEXIA LAWYERS ENDORSE SPIVEY FOR TENTH COURT

The Mexia Bar Association has given its unanimous endorsement to Judge John W. Spivey in his race for re-election as a member of the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals at Waco. Every lawyer in Mexia signed the endorsement which was circulated yestreday by Ben B. Hunt, except four members of the Mexia Bar who are out of the city, these four being I. W. Keys, Frank C. Bolton, Judge N. T. Stubbs, Chester Machen and Judge W. M. White. Mr. Hunt says he feels confident all these will support Judge Spivey, although he has not had an opportunity to see them and therefore has no authority to speak for them.

The endorsement reads as follows:

We, the undersigned practicing attorneys of the Mexia bar, hereby endorse the Honorable John W. Spivey of the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals for re-election as a member of that Court. In as much as Judge Spivey has been in office only a few months, having sacrificed his law practice in order to serve the State as a member of the above mentioned court, and especially in view of the fact that his record on the bench has been able and conscientious, we believe the best interests of the State will be served by his re-election.

LETTERS From the People

HOW THE KLAN STANDS ON CERTAIN QUESTIONS

(Copy of letter sent to all Klans in Texas, May 17, 1924.)

Special Bulletin

To all Hydras, Great Titans, Furies, Kleagels, Exalted Cyclops and Terrors, and to all Klansmen Thruout the Realm of Texas.

Greetings:

There is now pending before the proper committees in the House and Senate of the United States a certain proposed bill, seeking to legalize the sale of beverages containing as much as Two and Seventy-five Percent (2.75%) of alcohol, which if favorably reported and finally passed by both Houses of the Congress, would destroy the solemn wish of the people of the United States as expressed in the Eighteenth Amendment to our Federal Constitution.

The Klan stands for the Constitution and all of its amendments. Therefore, I, Z. E. Marvin, Grand Dragon of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Realm of Texas, solemnly call upon all Klansmen in this State to immediately wire or write their respective Congressmen and Senators, urging them to use their best efforts to prevent favorable action on said Bills, and in the event same should be reported out of the Committees, to do all in their power to defeat the same in both Houses of Congress

Faithfully yours,
In the Sacred, Unfailing Bond,
(Signed) Z. E. MARVIN,
Grand Dragon,
Realm of Texas.

(Copy of Letter sent to all Klans in Texas, May 26, 1924.)

To all Genii, Imperial Representatives, Grand Dragons and Hydras, Great Titans and Furies, King Kleagles and Giants, Exalted Cyclops and Terrors, and to all Citizens of the Invisible Empire.

Greetings:

The following resolution was unanimously passed by the Cyclops of all Texas Klans in Convention assembled at Dallas, May 21st, motion unanimously prevailing that copy be furnished to the press:

Whereas the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan stands for the Constitution and its amendments;

And, Whereas, many Doctors and Druggists are abusing the sacred trust this Government has placed in them in that they promiscuously write and fill Whiskey prescriptions, thereby violating the spirit of the 18th Amendment.

Therefore be it resolved that it is the sense of this body that the State of Texas should follow the lead of twenty-three other states and surrender its privileges to dispense whiskey through its doctors and druggists or by any other means.

Officially issued from the office of the Grand Dragon, Realm of Texas, on this the 26th day of May, 1924, in the year of our Klan LVIII.

Faithfully yours,
In the Sacred, Unfailing Bond,

RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenrhu, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiful and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenrhu, who far many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not wart a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. Anderson & Horn can supply you. (adv.)

KLAN PLANK CONSIDERED TO EMBARASS McADOO

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL GETS UNDER WAY TODAY

Morning Meet Held at the Palace

"God can save men in the stores, in the shops, in their homes, on the streets, in the church, anywhere when they are willing to confess their sin and turn to Him," said Rev. Young at the revival which begun at the Central Presbyterian church last night. His text was the thirty-second verse of the twenty-fourth chapter of Luke. "Was not our heart burning within us, while He spake to us in the way, while He opened to us the scripture?" which were the words of the two disciples in recalling their interview with the risen Christ on the way to Emmaus. In a passionate message Dr. Young presented his sermon on the theme, "The Church of the Flaming Heart."

The Church of the Flaming Heart was described as a church in touch with the living Lord. When a church lost its touch with Jesus it lost its power. Secondly it was a church that accepted the Scripture as interpreted by Christ. Thirdly the Church of the Flaming Heart was one that accepted Christ as offered to us in the Gospels.

This type of a church flames up to God and also spreads out touching the lives of fellow men. The sermon was a forceful appeal for the kind of church described in the apostolic days. Dr. Young said it was worth everything to have a Church with a Flaming Heart.

The revival opened with that stirring old hymn, "Revive Us Again." Miss Anna McLeod and Miss Myra Belle Quimby of Wortham, accompanied the chorus choir with the violin. Mr. Croxton sang "The Old Fashioned Faith." A delegation of people attended the service from Teague. Out of town visitors were heartily welcomed by Rev. Aubrey, pastor of the church, and applause of the congregation.

Arrangements have been made to conduct a nursery each evening for the younger children and babies. Miss Annie Lou Karner will be in charge. A meeting of the children of the town will be held Friday afternoon at 3:30 p .m. at the church for the purpose of organizing a Rainbow Band. All children are welcome. Mr. Croxton and Rev. Aubrey will meet with them.

The morning meeting, 10 a. m. at the Palace Theatre was attended by an enthusiastic group. A heart to heart message was delivered by Dr. Young in which he said that every man, woman and child in Mexia was a sinner and needed a Savior and that every man woman and child in Mexia could be saved if they accepted Jesus Christ. He said Mexia could be turned upside down for God if people would allow their hearts turned inside out and cleansed of sin.

Meetings will be held Friday morning at 10 a. m. at the Palace Theatre and Friday evening at 8 p. m. at the church. But no meeting will be held Saturday. The revival is to continue until June 29. People of all faiths, and all walks and conditions of life are invited to attend.

CHAMBER BUDGET BEING RAISED BY MEMBERS OF CLUB

Enthusiasm and a fine spirt of cooperation were keynotes of the meeting the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. The meeting had a splendid attendance, and President Hardy Eubanks was indeed gratified at this first omen of a successful year through the hearty co-operation and one hundred percent backing of the Board.

The purpose of the meeting as stated by Secretary Cason, was the arriving at, and the adoption of a definite budget plan for the year, and an open discussion of ways and means for carrying the plan to completion was in order. Committees of enthusiasts immediately volunteered to serve in the required capacity, and the plans for "putting over the job" were mapped out at once, work to begin this morning. Another meeting of the members of the Chamber of Commerce called this morning was the initial proceeding, and work is being carried forward today. Some of the committees will be around to your place of business soon. If by any chance they haven't yet seen you, prove yourself a backer of Mexia's best interest by getting in touch with the Chamber of Commerce at once.

MAJOR LEAGUE BATTLEGROUND CHANGES TODAY

NEW YORK, June 19.—American League battlegrounds shift Eastward today while the Western invasion in the National is practically at an end.

The Yanks, who lost eight games and won but seven on their Western swing, maintained a precarious lead in the American race with the principal change the advance of the hard hitting Tigers to second place, over the prostrate forms of the Red Sox, who lost an entire series in Detroit.

In the National circuit the Giants fattened up their average at the expense of the Cardinals and are sorry to see the St. Louis team leaving. McGraw's men won their last five games. Brooklyn did well against the invaders, while the Cubs showed flashes of great ball in the East.

Hornsby of the Cards is leading the batters in the older league with an average of .393, while Archreacon, Cobb, Jamieson, Ruth and McNulty have passed Heilman in the American League batting race. Archdeacon's average for 34 games is .367, Cobb's for 57 games, 364.

MEXICO PLEASED AT SETTLEMENT WITH BRITISH

MEXICO CITY, June 19.—"I am glad the Cummins affair has been amicably arranged. I am pleased that Great Britain at least meets our request, made so many times, for withdrawal of this man, who for so long has been a stumbling block to understanding."

President Obregon of Mexico, in an interview with the United Press thus dismissed the incident arising over this country's dissatisfaction with the British charge des archives H. Cunrad Cummins.

"We always have acted in good faith and a friendly spirit," Obregon said, "and recent actions, notes and the general attitude of Cummins justified us in praying England, in a conciliatory spirit to place a man here who would be acceptable to us. We hope the field is now open for concord, for we always are anxious to be on amicable terms with England—one of the greatest nations in the world."

Obregon said he only regretted that Britain, after recognizing Russia, could not see fit to do as much for Mexico.

FASCISTI ORGAN IS SUSPENDED FOLLOWING KILLING

ROME, June 19.—Corriere Italino, former organ of the Fascist Government, is suspending publication because of agitation growing out of the kidnaping and probable assassination of the Socialist Deputy Matteoti, it was announced today.

The newspaper has been attacked bitterly ever since Filippo Filippelli, one of its editors, was arrested for alleged participation in the abduction plot.

Meantime the search for Matteoti's body continues without success, although police said they have all the men who took part in the plot under arrest. Milan dispatches said a mysterious international adventurer named Ottone Thierstvald has been arrested there in connection with the kidnaping and told police Matteoti's body could be found in a villa near Fiuggi. Police are working on this new clue.

Thierstvald is a former Communist, who according to police, was hired by the Fascisti to spy on activities of the radicals throughout Italy.

WACO, Texas, June 19.—Mrs. John Lackey, 30, formerly of Limestone county, but who moved with her family to Waco about five years ago from Prairie Hill, died Wednesday morning at a Waco sanitarium. Dr. J. H. Maynard who attended her declared that she died of carbolic acid poisoning.

According to neighbors, Mrs. Lackey drank carbolic acid at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. They say that she had attempted to shoot herself with a pistol at 6 o'clock the same morning, and at 6:30 had attempted to drink carbolic acid. In both cases her husband, it is said, stopped her. About 7 o'clock she went out to a nearby drug store, bought a small bottle of carbolic acid, passed through the house into the back yard, and was found a few minutes later by her husband. The latter says that he struck the acid from her hand, but she had already swallowed most of it. Dr. I. A. Langston who was called to the house at once, found Mrs. Lackey unconscious. She was taken to Colgin's sanitarium, where she died about 8 o'clock.

Mr. Lackey, who is employed at the Waco Cotton Oil mill, said that his wife had been despondent for the last few days.

Mrs. Lackey was a member of the Baptist church.

JAP EXCLUSION IS FINAL SAYS U. S.

By A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The American Government has decided that the law excluding Japanese immigrants from the United States beginning July 1, is final and no attempt will be made by the executive branch of the Government to supersede it.

This is the "keynote" of the reply of Secretary of State Hughes to the recent Japanese protest against the exclusion law. It is particularly significant in connection with the belief in some quarters that the two Governments would negotiate a treaty to override the law.

The United States believes that to hold out hope of mitigation the exclusion law would only keep alive dissatisfaction and antagonism between the two countries. It takes the attitude that all the exchanges between the United States and Japan over the immigration controversy have been conducted in a spirit of friendship and understanding. Hughes in his reply to Ambassador Hanihara stated:

"I take pleasure in noting your reference to the friendliness and candor in which your communication has been made and you may be assured of the readiness of this Government to consider in the same spirit the views you have set forth."

Hughes made it plain this Government desires to dispel all suppositions that in enacting the exclusion law the United States has violated the commercial treaty with Japan, the expiring gentlemen's agreement or the principles of international comity.

Hughes reveals that the American Government in a communication to the Japanese Ambassador on Jan. 23, 1911, accepted the proposal for negotiation of the treaty of commerce and navigation of 1911, "with all necessary reserves and without prejudice to the inherent sovereign right of either country to limit and control immigration to its own domains or possessions."

This Government holds that the exclusion law is no violation of the gentlemen's agreement as that pact is an unilateral undertaking entered to voluntarily by Japan which is to continue so long as conditions warranted. With the new immigration law, however, conditions have changed and the agreement is no longer necessary. Releasing Japan from all further obligation under the gentlemen's agreement after July 1, Hughes declared:

Finally, there is no violation of international comity involved in the exclusion law. The Japanese Government, itself, has exercised the sovereign power inherent in all nations to place control on immigration.

RHODE ISLANDERS REFUSE TO LEAVE WHEN POISON GAS USED TO STOP FILIBUSTER IN THE STATE SENATE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 19.—What is said to be poisoned gas was used in an attempt to break up a fillibuster in the Rhode Island state senate, which has been in session since Tuesday afternoon. Fist fights and small riots climaxed by the introduction of gas into the chamber. The members refused to leave despite the gas.

ROTARIANS HEAR GREAT ADDRESS AT LUNCHEON TODAY

One of the finest addresses yet heard at the Rotary club was presented at noon today by Dr. L. D. Young, pastor of the City Temple at Dallas and who is doing the preaching for the next nine days at the revival being conducted under the auspices of the Central Presbyterian church.

Hardy Eubanks, President of the club, called the meeting to order and introduced the visitors and guests of the club, following which he read a telegram from Albert H. Berry, delegate from Mexia Rotary at the World convention of Rotarians at Toronto, Canada. Mr. Berry stated in his telegram that it was a great thing to rub shoulders with Rotarians from 28 countries, all interested in "Service Above Self," the Rotary motto and battle cry.

John Corley was chairman of the Program Committee and handled the program in fine fashion, introducing Dr. Young who delivered an address on Salesmanship. He declared that salesmanship depended upon a character being ready for the opportunity when it presented itself; the salesman must first sell himself; a 100 per cent character should be put behind 100 per cent goods; a salesman should give his business that attention necessary to prevent failure and to bring success; and that he must look to his own personal habits, be kind and courteous and above all have a passion for his business. He stated that a French scientist had truly said that a drop of blood and an all consuming passion was bigger than the sun.

At the conclusion of his address, the club stood in recognition of the inspirational address so akin to the ideals of Rotary.

Being from Nebraska, it was natural for him to pay a glowing tribute to William Jennings Bryan and he did so in stressing certain points of his fifteen minute address.

Rev. Victor K. Aubrey announced the morning services at the Palace Theatre under the auspices of the revival and invited the public to all services of the campaign.

Dr. Young stated that he was in Mexia three years ago and he was much impressed with the steps of progress made since that time, saying that Mexia was a going concern.

Mr. Corley stated that there had never been any address or songs more enjoyable and inspirational than those heard today, thanking those who had assisted in the program. President Eubanks agreed to this statement.

L. S. Patterson announced at the club that Harry Cooper, Texas golf champion would play two exhibition games at the country club Friday morning soon after arrival on the 10:00 o'clock train and in the afternoon following the ball game. Whether Mr. Patterson, Tom Nolan or David Murphy would play against him was not made very clear.

COTTON MILL MEETING FRIDAY MORNING

The Cotton Mill meeting Friday morning at the Hurdleston hotel at 10 o'clock it is believed will prove to be a very interesting one. The progress of the project will be discussed and new business will be brought up. Attandance at these meetings is of great importance, as the men who are giving their time should at least have every ones suggestions and co-operation in all matters that come up for discussion. Business of vital interest to all is to be settled and the meeting will be a very short one due to the fact that most everyone has other plans to carry out Friday.

DUAL MORAL CODE IS GRIFFITH FILM THEME

It is doubtful if D. W. Griffith ever labored more diligently in his career on any work than he did in the case of his latest United Artists production "The White Rose," which comes to the National Theatre today, Friday and Saturday.

Here is something so distinctly different, so reverently tender and depending so much upon vastly superior characterization that the famous producer found it necessary to take scenes time after time in order that each might be perfect in its cameo-like delicacy and beauty.

Mr. Griffith's theme in this instance is far different than anything ever seen before on screen or stage. It was necessary that it be told in the most artistic manner and be arranged by a past master in the art.

A youth of high family and circumstance in a section of the South which boasts one of our oldest social orders is preparing for the ministry, thus fulfilling a dying wish of his mother. He is finishng hs last year at the seminary and it has been practically accepted by all who know him that he shall marry a girl of equal family importance in his own neighborhood. To learn something of the world and broaden his outlook, he sets out on a walking trip and visits various cities.

Meanwhile there emerges from an orphanage a slip of a girl who must make her way unaided in the world. She obtains employment in an inn frequented by winter vacationists and here this youth of religious mein meets her.

The waif has progressed to the acute flapper stage by this time, having been told she must make herself attractive to get on in the world. She does so, but in a manner that outdistances the others. The student preacher meets her, becomes enamoured, yet all the while thinking she is of a bad sort. Their friendliness ripens into something deeper and the divinity student flees from his charmer.

Then the world moves on in its cycle of woe. A flight of time finds the youth ordained and in high opinion as a preacher of exceptional powers. But in this time a baby comes to the waif and she is cast about and shunned by reason of her violation of that terrible single code of morals which has held so long.

Despite his sourroundings, and his success in the pulpit, the minister is unable to forget the girl he knew so briefly in his travels. He is about to wed the maiden of his own circle when the wanderer with her child happens into his locality.

The denouement of this delicate story of ennobling love progresses in a most gripping manner and there comes a meeting between the pair in a lowly negro shanty which takes rank with any scene ever shown on the screen or across the footlights of a theatre.

n order to be certain of the proper atmosphere for this story, Mr. Griffith took his company into the Bayou Teche country of western Louisiana, where were filmed the many strikingly beautiful scenes with which this work abounds. Also, the great producer selected a cast to portray the principal characters which seldom has been equalled.

Mae Marsh returns to the screen after a long absence to play the part of the orphan girl and registers the greatest success of her noteworthy career. The minister is essayed by Ivor Noveilo, the handsome young English actor, who has quickly won the favor of American audiences thru his work in this instance. Other players are Carol Dempster, Neil Hamilton, Proter Strong, Lucille La Verne, Erville Alderson, Jane Thomas, Kate Bruce, Herbert Sutch, Charles Emmet Mack and a large number of carefully chosen supernumeraries.

This Sort Of Fly Is A Benefactor

Their unheralded aid is a species of fl that suddenly appeared and makes its especial duty that of attacking "hoppers." The fly deposits an egg in the joint that connects the "hopper's" head to the body. The "hopper" is stupyfied, and the egg soon hatches a larva which devours the grasshopper.

It is said the flies are present by the millions, and one farmer reported that his land was thickly strewn with grasshoppers which had been attacked by the flies.

Former Mexia Pastor Witnesses Graduation Of His Granddaughter

WAXAHACHIE, June 18.—Himself a graduate of Trinity University the Rev. J. S. Groves, 87 years old, witnessed the graduation this year of his granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Kilbourn, from the same school. Miss Kilbourn was one of forty-two students to graduate from Trinity this year.

It is not often that a member of the first graduating class of a college lives to attend the graduation of his own granddaughter, as has Mr. Groves, who is one of the two graduates of the Trinity the first year of the institution. This week, fifty-three years later, the Rev. and Mrs. Groves who live in a little home facing the college campus, stepped across the campus to witness the graduation of their granddaughter, who received a degree of bachelor of arts.

Mr. Groves is a retired Presbyterian minister, having served churches at Fairfield and Cotton Gin for twenty-three years and the Mexia church for nineteen years. He is now very feeble.

Miss Kilbourn in her senior year was editor of "The Mirage," the university yearbook. During the year the faculty offered a scholarship to the student presenting a thesis setting forth the six best reasons why young people seeking a college education should attend Trinity. Miss Kilbourn won the prize.

The most successful concerns in the world are those who advertise and keep on at it.

WHITE PLAGUE FOUND TO PERIL POULTRY FLOCKS

URBANA, Ill.—Tuberculosis is attacking poultry flocks, experts of the animal pathology and hygiene division of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, have discovered.

The disease has made its way into a majority of the farm flocks in some sections of the State and appears to be spreading.

Avian tuberculosis—the type found in chickens—cannot be cured, its control depending entirely no preventive measures, according to the university experts. Infected flocks should be given the tuberculin test; the reactors destroyed and the premises disinfected, they recommend.

"A tuberculous flock of chickens on a farm endangers other flocks in the community," the statement sent to 800 State veterinarians warns.

"Flying birds, such as English sparrows, may carry the infection, while in some localities the chickens on different farms intermingle and spread the disease."

The final stages of the disease are marked by weakness, paleness of the comb, skin and mucous membranes, loss of flesh, unthriftiness and sometimes swollen joints and lameness. The appetite of the affected chickens remains normal until just before death.

LEGITIMATE AND UNPLUCKED WAR FRUIT

At the National Convention in Madison Square Garden in New York next week, Woodrow Wilson will not be there. But the things that he stood for will be present. Rejected by his countrymen, in the years following immediately after the war, the principles in which he expressed an abiding faith so many times are gradually triumphing and the chances are bright that the nominee of the Democratic convention this year will be a man who favors the ideals expressed in the League of Nations.

Before he left the White House, Woodrow Wilson was an invalid, made so by seven years of continued strain, while composing differences abroad and in striving to build the new order of human relationship upon the ruins of the old and consistent with the doctrines of the "Prince of Peace." The relentless hand of malice beat upon his door but they now refused to knock. Senators of the Republican party even who fought savagely against America's entrance into the League of Nations were rejected as leaders at the recent Cleveland convention.

This is not a source of wonder. It is but natural. The only offense they ever accused Woodrow Wilson of having been guilty of was that he sought to save a future generation of this country and of the world from the agonies through which this generation has passed; that he had taken seriously the promises that all nations had made that they would unite at the end of the last world war to preserve the peace of the world; and that he relied upon the good faith of his own people. If there was a mistake it was in that he formed a too generous estimate of mankind at that particular time, but the years will surely prove that he was justified even in his confidence. The idealism which made the world war a great spiritual victory may be relied on, through the democrats of this nation ultimately to secure the legitimate and unplucked fruit of war, the reign of universal peace.

EDITORIAL ON THE EDUCATION BILL.

Friends of the Education Bill, which was not reported in the session of Congress just closed, are disappointed, not discouraged or disheartened. Rome was not built in a day. Powerful influences are at work to prevent the Education Bill from passing. There is a strong governmental sentiment for a combined department of education and health or education and welfare. Some government economists think there are too many unrelated welfare and health movements in the government, and that economy would be served by combining, for instance, in one department, the present Bureau of Education, the Pension Office, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Howard University and Freedman's Hospital, all now under the Department of the Interior; the Public Health Service, now in the Treasury Department; the Veteran's Bureau, the Federal Board for Vocational Education, the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, and the National Home for Volunteer Disabled Soldiers.

Just what relation there is between education and welfare, which does not exist between education and warfare, or education and forestry, or education and agriculture, or education and lighthouses, does not appear. Education, the most important factor in the making of citizens, is no more related to bodily health than to bodily safety or bodily freedom from fire hazard, or bodily dependence upon food products. To combine medicine with education in the Government would be as unreasonable and as chaotic as to combine horticulture and the Bureau of Mines, or the Bureau of Standards with the Fish Commission.

The proponents of the Education Bill have just begun to fight! The National Education Association, the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction and hundreds of other organizations intend to keep up their efforts to combat the prejudice and the propaganda which are arrayed against the passage of this measure. They are certain to win in the end; it is merely a matter of keeping up courage and holding together against disappointment, and forever against a craven compromise the millions of men and women who want to see this great nation spend as much and do as much towards educating its citizens as it does towards improving its various brands of pigs and cattle, fruit and grain! —Scottish Rite News Bureau.

WEIRD TALE TOLD OF "MOVIE MURDER"

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 18.—A weird tale told by a prisoner sentenced to San Quentin penitentiary has set the police of Los Angeles searching on what may be the trail of a new movie murder, involving beautiful Barbara La Marr as one of the principals, or maybe only the ravings of a publicity seeker.

Thus far the police have a fairly complete story of the reported crime but no corpse or other evidence of its having been committed.

Four weeks ago, a certain actor styling himself Count Marioi Escobar, who had found indifferent success in his striving for film fame, disappeared from Hollywood.

Nothing was thought of this until Morris Nodler, prisoner in the county jail and under sentence for highway robbery, claimed to have knowledge that the Count was murdered and to know the spot along the lonely cliffs at San Capistrana where the nobleman's body was hurled over into the sea. To make his story good, he declared the count had been murdered in a fight over Barbara La Marr.

Police placed sufficient credence in the man's story to search the windswept beach beneath the cliffs, but found no body.

Nodler named two men, formerly connected with Miss La Marr, as being implicated in the affair.

The story was that on a certain dark night, the prisoner drove an automobile for two men. One was a former convict. The other, a relative of the actress by marriage.

Nodler claimed he drove to the Count's bungalow and that some little time later the men emerged, carrying the limp body of Escobar, which was thrown from the heights along the Torrey Pines grade below San Juan Capistrana on the road to San Diego. He embellished his tale with the howling of wind and the swish of white capped waves on the beach below.

Whenever You Possibly Can!

At present more than 80 per cent of the commodities used in Texas are manufactured out of the State. At the very best this should be only 50 per cent.

Mexia, in 1924, has entered upon an extensive campaign to build an industrial district in this city and community, destined to help the city grow as no other single movement could possibly do within the same period of time and with such permanent beneficial results to all concerned.

Makers of Mexia, loyal friends of this community, home loving citizens who are anxious to join in this worthy movement, all are urged to buy Mexia made products every time they need anything in the verious lines which are now manufactured in the growing industrial district right here at home.

No products are superior to those made in Mexia.

The growth of the city can best be brought about by a big tin bucket brigade. Hundreds are already in this brigade in Mexia and with your help hundreds more can and will be added.

This page calls your attention directly to many Mexia manufactured products. The manufacturers are striving daily to help you by giving you the very best quality, in the goods offered and will appreciate the consideration of all citizens who aspire to see the city reach the same worthy goal, a bigger and better place.

INDIANS WIN OUT AFTER HUMPHREYS' BLOW TIES COUNT

By JINX TUCKER
News-Tribune Sports Editor

For the sixth time in five days a baseball game was decided by a 1-run margin at Katy park. And for the second time in five days the margin of victory went to the Waco Indians, the locals with Speck Ragan in the box defeating the Mexia Gushers by a score of 4 to 3 in a game which was again featured by the brilliant fielding of the Mexia team.

Home Runs Score Four Runs ....

A home run by First Baseman Harding with Jones on second gave the visitors a lead of 3 to 1 in the fourth, and apparent victory, but in the seventh a home run by Chink Humphreys following Shires' double gave the locals a pair of runs, thereby tying the count. The Tribe then proceeded to win the game in the eighth when Manager Fowlkes, who was playing short instead of Geppert, threw wild to first after fielding Strickland's grounder, Old Folks going to second on the play. Lewis cracked a sizzling liner over second for a single, but Leedy, who played a great game in the field, knocked the blow down in sensational style, holding Strickland at third. The former Baylor star, however, scored on Hall's grounder to Jones. The Mexia third baseman whipped the ball to second to force Lewis, but Hall beat the throw to first when Leedy attempted to get a double killing. That run won the ball game for the Indians despite the glittering defensive play of Outfielder Bryan, Third Baseman Jones and Gus Leedy at second.

The Indians scored a run in the very first inning on hits by Kelly, Lewis and Province. Incidentally Lewis had a big day at bat with a double and two singles in four trips to the plate. Butler of Mexia also bingled three times while Jones hit a pair of doubles. Mexia's first run also came in the fourth, all the runs being made in this inning after two were out. Butler singled, but was picked off first by Humphreys, after two narrow escapes and Bryan struck out. Seeley doubled and Jones followed with his first double of the day scoring Seeley, after which came the home run over the left-field wall by Harding.

Williamson Stars for Gushers

Country Williamson, former Baylor star, playing his first game in Waco in a Mexia uniform, worked in flawless fashion behind the plate, and batting against Ragan, a pitcher, who throws just about as many curves as any hurler in the Texas association, the Arkansas product, smacked out two clean blows to left on his first two appearances at the plate. On his third turn at bat Williamson grounded out to Lewis and in the ninth sent a line drive to center which looked good for a triple for a moment but which Province turned into an easy out. Steinie Strickland, former Baylor star with Waco, was robbed of two hits by Bryan of the visitors.

JUNE TEENTH FINDS SHORTAGE OF LABOR

Negro help in the city is pretty scarce today. For the past several [illegible] many of the negroes of the community, both men and women, have been in the cotton patch and corn fields helping get rid of the weeds and grass. Today being "June Teenth," however, the farms are also evidencing a shortage of labor. Picnics at various points throughout the section attracted them together for their usual holiday and celebration.

The Mexican Government has decided to spend about $3,000,000 on irrigation project to develop several million acres of arid land in Chihuahua, Durango and Coahuila.

Must Make His Living Without Hands, And Can

When he was 13 years old, Coffey was thrown in front of a binder which severed both arms at the wrists. For two months he was in bed, but that fall he went to school. He has been going ever since.

At the state teachers college, where he is now a student, Coffey stood among the ten students of an attendance of 2000. He was elected editor in chief of the school annual——the highest honor the student body can confer. He won a $100 scholarship, took first in the high hurdles in the meet at S. M. U. and won his college letter. Twice he has been chosen president of his class.

"Worrying about the lose of my hands won't help" he said. "I just forget about it and go ahead."

Local Menagerie Has Alligators

Mrs. George Scoggins has quite a Zoological garden at Scoggins Candy Shop on East Commerce street. In front of the place is a cage for squirrels which attracts considerable attention and while looking at it several other species of animals may be seen. The latest addition is a couple of baby alligators. They were sent in a cigar box recently from an alligator farm in Florida. Mrs. Scoggins was very much surprised when they arrived, not knowing that they were to be sent. They were in the cigar box and four days were required for them to get here by parcels post.

T. E. L. Sunday School Class Enjoys A Social

The T. E. L. Sunday School class of the Baptist church met last Friday in regular monthly social session. The class was entertained by Mesdames M. Bryant and Clyde Mason at the lovely home of Mrs. Bryant on Ross Avenue. The hours from 5 to 7 in the afternoon, at which time the gathering took place, sped swiftly by as every moment was enjoyable and inspirations, fellowship and hospitality being truly genuine.

A program and business session was presided over by the president of the class, Mrs. Bryant, and this also was a delightful part of the afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Jeffers made a most inspirational report of the Baptist Convention at Atlanta which she attended. Miss Lelia Westmoreland gave a splendid reading and other features enlivened the hour. It being announced that Miss Catherene McGrail was to leave soon for her vacation in the West, the class unanimously expressed a wish that she have a most delightful and happy vacation, this being phrased in a motion that was approved by all present.

Delicious refreshments of pink and white ice cream and angel food cake were served. On top of the cream, the letters "T. E. L." were very attractive.

FORMER MEXIA PRINTER NOW IN WASHINGTON

Charles M. Church, until two months ago foreman of the News Publishing Company, is now employed as a printer and linotype operator in the government printing office at Washington, D. C.

He writes that he is enjoying his experience in the Capitol city very much. He expects to spend a weekend soon in New York City, the round trip fare between Washington and New York on such excursions being $5.00. The regular fare is more than $8.00 each way.

In speaking of his own surroundings, he states that none is allowed in the building except at work hours and if you work extra you have to have a pass and sign up to get out of the building. "I have not been in any other department except the linotype department which is located on the 7th floor and I go up in the elevator in the morning at 7:30 and leave in the evening at 4:30. Washington is a pretty place, plenty of parks and shade also boat rides in the river and swimming and fishing. If you don't like that then there are the mountains, fine drives, interesting street car rides and other amusements."

He concludes a recent letter by saying that "I see President Coolidge will be our next President." (Mr. Church is a Republican.)

MEXIA LAWYERS ENDORSE SPIVEY FOR TENTH COURT

The Mexia Bar Association has given its unanimous endorsement to Judge John W. Spivey in his race for re-election as a member of the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals at Waco. Every lawyer in Mexia signed the endorsement which was circulated yestreday by Ben B. Hunt, except four members of the Mexia Bar who are out of the city, these four being I. W. Keys, Frank C. Bolton, Judge N. T. Stubbs, Chester Machen and Judge W. M. White. Mr. Hunt says he feels confident all these will support Judge Spivey, although he has not had an opportunity to see them and therefore has no authority to speak for them.

The endorsement reads as follows:

We, the undersigned practicing attorneys of the Mexia bar, hereby endorse the Honorable John W. Spivey of the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals for re-election as a member of that Court. In as much as Judge Spivey has been in office only a few months, having sacrificed his law practice in order to serve the State as a member of the above mentioned court, and especially in view of the fact that his record on the bench has been able and conscientious, we believe the best interests of the State will be served by his re-election.

Signed by: A. B. Reynolds, G. A. Walters, W. M. White, Jr., O. M. Wroe, Ben B. Hunt, O. F. Watkins, W. S. Banks, W. W. Mason, O. Kennedy, L. B. Aultman, Joseph H. Byers, W. T. Church, R. A. Shepherd, O. Kennedy, Jr., and James E. Gresham.

LETTERS From the People

HOW THE KLAN STANDS ON CERTAIN QUESTIONS

The News is in receipt of the following official communications from the Ku Klux Klan:

(Copy of letter sent to all Klans in Texas, May 17, 1924.)

Special Bulletin

To all Hydras, Great Titans, Furies, Kleagels, Exalted Cyclops and Terrors, and to all Klansmen Throughout the Realm of Texas.

Greetings:

There is now pending before the proper committees in the House and Senate of the United States a certain proposed bill, seeking to legalize the sale of beverages containing as much as Two and Seventy-five Percent (2.75%) of alcohol, which if favorably reported and finally passed by both Houses of the Congress, would destroy the solemn wish of the people of the United States as expressed in the Eighteenth Amendment to our Federal Constitution.

The Klan stands for the Constitution and all of its amendments. Therefore, I, Z. E. Marvin, Grand Dragon of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Realm of Texas, solemnly call upon all Klansmen in this State to immediately wire or write their respective Congressmen and Senators, urging them to use their best efforts to prevent favorable action on said Bills, and in the event same should be reported out of the Committees, to do all in their power to defeat the same in both Houses of Congress.

Faithfully yours,
In the Sacred, Unfailing Bond.
(Signed) Z. E. MARVIN,
Grand Dragon,
Realm of Texas.

(Copy of letter sent to all Klans in Texas, May 20, 1924.)

To all Genii, Imperial Representatives, Grand Dragons and Hydras, Great Titans and Furies, King Kleagles and Giants, Exalted Cyclops and Terrors, and to all Citizens of the Invisible Empire.

Greetings:

The following resolution was unanimously passed by the Cyclops of all Texas Klans in Convention assembled at Dallas, May 21st, motion unanimously prevailing that copy be furnished to the press:

Whereas the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan stands for the Constitution and its amendments;

And, Whereas, many Doctors and Druggists are abusing the sacred trust this Government has placed in them in that they promiscuously write and fill Whiskey prescriptions, thereby violating the spirit of the 18th Amendment.

Therefore be it resolved that it is the sense of this body that the State of Texas should follow the lead of twenty-three other states and surrender its privileges to dispense whiskey through its doctors and druggists or by any other means.

Officially issued from the office of the Grand Dragon, Realm of Texas, on this the 26th day of May, 1924, in the year of our Klan LVIII.

Faithfully yours,
In the Sacred, Unfailing Bond,
(Signed) Z. E. MARVIN,
Grand Dragon,
Realm of Texas.

RHEUMATISM
Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenrhu, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenrhu, who far many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. Anderson & Horn can supply you. (adv.)
